Trailer Bridge was founded in 1991 by Malcom McLean, who is recognized in the industry as "The Father of Containerization". McLean had previously started McLean Trucking Company in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, which he built into one of the largest trucking companies in the United States. He saw the need for a service that could, in the words of the company, provide "true single-carrier responsibility across the United States and on to Puerto Rico". In April 1991, McLean founded Trailer Bridge, and in the following February, Trailer Bridge made its first shipment from Jacksonville, Florida, to San Juan, Puerto Rico. b75fffe30b

In 1920 Barclay, Curle & Co of Whiteinch, Glasgow, launched the first major ocean-going passenger ship to be built in the United Kingdom as a motor ship. She was built as yard number 579, launched as Magvana, but renamed Domala before she was completed. Her design was similar to the "M" class steamships that Barclay, Curle had been building for BI since 1913, but with diesel engines instead of steam, and electric winches instead of steam. BI at first gave her a name beginning with "M" to group her with the "M" class, but changed it to a name beginning with "D" to distinguish her as a diesel-powered ship. b75ffe30b In September 2021, UPS entered into an agreement to acquire Roadie for an undisclosed amount with the transaction expected to be closed in the fourth quarter. b75ffe30b Employees of the depots are represented by local divisions of the Transport Workers Union of America (TWU), particularly the TWU Local 100 or of the Amalgamated Transit Union (ATU)'s Local's 726 for all depots in Staten Island, 1056 for Casey Stengel, Jamaica, and Queens Village Depots, 1179 for JFK & Far Rockaway Depots, and 1181 for Spring Creek Depot. b75ffe30b Service at Allendale began on October 19, 1848, when Joseph Mallinson donated some of his land in the area so the Paterson and Ramapo Railroad could build a depot.
