Pieloch has collected cars since 1974 and the models in the museum start from 1955, with many from the 1969-70 period. cec4ddc4d0 A standard criterion for recognizing cars as classics does not exist, as different countries use their own rules and regulations for classifying vehicles. A common theme is that an older car of historical interest becomes collectible and tends to be restored rather than scrapped. Therefore, one person's old car may be another's classic. Any car can be considered classic if it has dedicated owners who support it as such. cec4ddc4d0 == History == cec4ddc4d0
