Directory

At the time of its closure, the mall had two anchor stores, Macy's Men's & Home Store (formerly Jordan Marsh) and Macy's Women's (formerly Filene's), which both closed by March 2026. It also had two other anchor locations, which had previously housed Sears and JCPenney. At 603,618 square feet (56,077.9 m²), it was New Hampshire's fourth-largest mall, with 84 shops, all on one level. Completed in 1983 as Fox Run Mall, the mall functioned mainly as a successor to the smaller and dated Newington Mall, which was subsequently converted into a big-box retail center known as The Crossings. d49263bfb8
