Certain Christian rules of purity have implications for bodily hygiene and observing cleanliness, including sexual hygiene, menstruation and toilet etiquette. In the Coptic Orthodox Church, the Ethiopian Orthodox Church and the Eritrean Orthodox Tewahedo Church male circumcision is an established practice. Around the time of Tertullian, an early Church Father, it was customary for Christians to wash their hands (manulavium), face (capitilavium) and feet (pedilavium) before prayer, as well as before receiving Holy Communion. The rite of footwashing employed a basin of water and linen towels, done in the imitation of Christ.

History

Bath & Body Works was founded in 1990 in New Albany, Ohio, as the beauty line for Express, Inc. The company's first store opened in a Cambridge, Massachusetts, mall in September 1990. In 1991, the Body Shop sued Bath & Body Works, resulting in Bath & Body Works rebranding. The brand created a mascot named Kate who serves as a founding figure, with the store layout being modeled as her country house. In 1997, a secondary brand known as Bath & Body Works at Home was launched. Two years later, the company launched the White Barn Candle Company, a division specializing in the sale of scented candles.

In most cultures, cleanliness is considered a good quality, and may be regarded as contributing to other ideals such as health and beauty. The holiness movement § Lifestyle developed a now-widespread aphorism: "Cleanliness is next to Godliness", connecting physical cleanliness to spiritual freedom from sin.

According to a 2017 poll held by the Korean Intellectual Property Office, the Italy towel was ranked as one of the top ten inventions made within the country.
