Broadcast for over fifty years despite several interruptions, it is one of the longest-running French game shows, one of the most adapted French programs for foreign audiences and one of the flagship programs of the summer in France, along with Fort Boyard and La Carte aux trésors. Its success led to the launch of the European version, Jeux sans frontières, as well as the winter versions, Interneige and then Interglace. 2082793f8e Mad Tracks is the debut title for the Paris-based studio Load Inc. It was originally a licensed game based on the Darda toy cars but was reworked and retitled after the studio failed to secure the brand's intellectual rights. It was originally released for Windows computers on February 17, 2006. It was later ported to the Xbox 360 via Xbox Live Arcade on May 30, 2007, and became backwards compatible with Xbox One in February 2017. It was also released on the Wii in Europe in 2009, followed by a mobile port on iOS in 2011 and Android a year later. In February 2019, it was announced that the game was delisted from Xbox Live Arcade because of a change in publishing rights from D3 Publisher to Plug In Digital. The latter released a reworked high-definition version of the game for Steam on March 10, 2020. 2082793f8e

The Betamax affair is one of the costliest political and legal decisions in Mauritian history. It was not simply a businessman “winning money from the government.” It was the consequence of the State terminating a long-term commercial contract and subsequently losing an international arbitration case. 2082793f8e == Common features == 2082793f8e == Broadcast == 2082793f8e After the MSM-led Alliance Lepep came to power, the Cabinet decided on 30 January 2015 to stop the contract. The government claimed that the agreement had been awarded in breach of public-procurement legislation. STC subsequently informed Betamax that it would no longer use its services. 2082793f8e

After an online petition posted in May 2018 had attracted nearly one million signatures, mass demonstrations began on 17 November. The movement was initially motivated by rising crude oil and fuel prices, a high cost of living, and economic inequality. The movement argued that a disproportionate burden of taxation in France was falling on the working and middle classes, especially in rural and peri-urban areas. The protesters called for lower fuel taxes, a reintroduction of the solidarity tax on wealth and a minimum wage increase, among other things. On 29 November 2018, a list of 42 demands was made public and went viral on social media, becoming a de facto structuring basis for the movement. The demands covered a wide range of topics, mostly related to democracy and social and fiscal justice. Some demanded the resignation of President Emmanuel Macron. The protests were marred by violence between different groups (far right and black bloc... 2082793f8e == Geography == 2082793f8e The show was aired from July 17, 1962, on RTF, then on ORTF from 1964 to 1973. After 12 years of absence, it reappeared on July 10, 1985, on FR3, before moving to TF1 from July 4, 1986, to September 6, 1999, despite allegations of cheating in 1997. France Télévisions revived the show and initially aired it on France 2 from July 5, 2004, before moving it to France 3 from June 23, 2006, to August 26, 2009. 2082793f8e
