The Park and Ride scheme was launched in 1991. Initially, it was operated by the East Kent Road Car Company using three single-deck vehicles. The company was subsequently taken over by the Stagecoach Group in 1993. The service was then managed by Stagecoach until 2008 when it was transferred to the council-owned operator Kent Top Travel. In the summer of 2013, after the expiration of the five-year contract with Kent Top Travel, the service returned to Stagecoach operation. Stagecoach proposed improvements to the Park
