List of MLS Cup finals The league also awards the Supporters' Shield to teams that have the most points during the regular season. The match marks the conclusion of the MLS Cup playoffs, a five-round knockout competition contested by the top nine teams from each of the league's two conferences. The MLS Cup champion also qualifies for the Campeones Cup, a friendly held since 2018 against the winners of the Mexican Campeón de Campeones from Liga MX. From 1996 to 2008, the English broadcast of the MLS Cup was carried in the United States. The MLS Cup is the annual championship match of Major League Soccer (MLS), the top-level men's soccer league for the United States and Canada. Both the MLS Cup champion and Supporters' Shield winner qualify for the CONCACAF Champions Cup, contested by the champions of CONCACAF leagues in North America, Central America, and the Caribbean. The final, with 73,019 spectators at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, Georgia. The playoffs tournament is organized by the league at the end of the regular season in a format which is similar to other major professional sports leagues in the United States and Canada, but unlike most soccer leagues

Format The tournament is held during the first week of January and, since 1999, has been played over the Plantation Course at the Kapalua Resort near Lahaina on the island of Maui in Hawaii. Unlike most PGA Tour events, it is a par 73 course. Since the SEC expanded to 14 schools with the arrival of Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, the 2013 tournament was the first with a new format. Both men's and women's tournaments have the four bottom seeds (#11 throughout #14) playing opening-round games, with the top four seeds receiving a "double-bye" into the quarterfinals. Myers spent his childhood in Bermuda and his high school youth in apartheid-era South Africa, and received graduate education in West Berlin during the early 1980s, occasionally visiting East Germany. Pikes Peak International Raceway A wide variety of amateur racing groups use PPIR for racing and training as the circuit is now closed to sanctioned professional auto racing due to the purchase of the track by PPIR LLC from NASCAR/ISC in 2008 after the track was put up for sale in 2006. The sale included a clause that prohibited sanctioned professional auto racing, as well as the need for additional safety upgrades at a cost of $1 million+ for professional racing series that the new ownership had no interest in implementing with the clause in place. A total of 60 people were at the finish. The speedway hosted races in several series including the Indy Racing League and two NASCAR series (Busch and Truck) until operations were suspended from August 2005. On May 19, 2026, it was announced that the 2026 season was the final year for the track, as the property is planned for mixed-use redevelopment. including four XK-120s, one Lea Francis, one Mercedes-Benz, one Jaguar Mk V sedan, and twelve MGs. at Crystola Pikes Peak International Raceway (PPIR) is an semi-inactive racetrack in the Colorado Springs area within the city limits of Fountain, Colorado (but is actually closer to Pueblo, Colorado) 1e1f8cabf4
