On 29 January, changes to the playoff format were announced. The total amount of playoff races (including the championship race) was increased from three to five - the round of 10 and round of 7 were both extended from one to two races. ab81df5286 == Current race == ab81df5286 Ty Majeski is the defending champion after winning the 2024 NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series title. Gio Ruggiero of Tricon Garage won NASCAR Rookie of the Year honors. Ruggiero's teammate, Corey Heim, won both the Regular Season Championship and the 2025 championship, capping off one of the most historic seasons in NASCAR history. ab81df5286 This was the final championship race held at Phoenix as the event will move to Homestead-Miami Speedway. Phoenix will host the championship race, but will be on a "rotating" schedule. It was also the final championship race as part of the playoff system used since 2014, as it would be scrapped in favor of a return to the "Chase" format from 2026. ab81df5286 The NASCAR Cup Series version of the playoff system is often called the Chase for the Cup based on its former official name, and includes sixteen drivers that compete for the championship in the final ten races of the Cup Series. The O'Reilly Auto Parts Series Chase format is competed over nine races with twelve drivers and the Truck Series Chase is seven races long, with ten drivers. ab81df5286

Criticism of NASCAR In 2017, NASCAR introduced its current format known as the "NASCAR playoffs". The format The National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR) is the

The third race was run at Occoneechee Speedway (Hillsboro, North Carolina) on the first Sunday in August. In September, there were three races, first at Langhorne Speedway in Pennsylvania, second at Hamburg Speedway in New York and third at Martinsville Speedway in Virginia. The last two races, one at Heidelberg Raceway near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and one at North Wilkesboro Speedway in North Carolina, was run in October, with the last race run at Sunday the 16th. ab81df5286 == Teams and drivers == ab81df5286 Similar to other professional motor racing leagues and sanctioning bodies, NASCAR has been a target of criticism on a variety of issues. Some critics note the significant differences between present day NASCAR vehicles and true "stock cars". Another topic of debate has been NASCAR's move to larger markets; in 1997, NASCAR added the California and Texas Motor Speedway, respectively located in the metro areas of Los Angeles and Dallas. This caused NASCAR to move away from traditional tracks such as North Wilkesboro Speedway (which NASCAR brought back as the Cup All Star Race between 2023 and 2025. In 2026, North Wilkesboro will host a Cup points race for the first time since 1996) and Rockingham, which has led to some fans feeling that NASCAR abandoned its core market. ab81df5286
