== History == d6ea4c1d1e Sheffield played a crucial role in the Industrial Revolution, developing many significant technologies. In the 19th century the city saw a huge expansion of its traditional cutlery trade, when processes for high-quality stainless steel and crucible steel were invented. This fuelled an almost tenfold increase in the population. Sheffield received its municipal charter in 1843 and was granted city status by in 1893. International competition in iron and steel caused a decline in these industries in the 1970s and 1980s, coinciding with the collapse of coal mining in the area. == Terminology == d6ea4c1d1e In recent decades, malls have declined considerably in the United States and Canada, partly due to the retail apocalypse, particularly in subprime locations, and some have closed and become so-called dead malls. Successful examples of de-malling have seen such changes as added entertainment and experiential features, added big-box stores as anchors, or converted to other specialized shopping center formats such as power centers, lifestyle centers, factory outlet centers, and festival marketplaces. In Canada, shopping centres have frequently been replaced with mixed-use high-rise communities. In many African, Asian, European and Latin American countries, shopping malls continue to grow and thrive.
